Tacony Creek Park Master Plan

Final Public Meeting

Agenda

5 to 7 PM – Open House
- Viewing of Master Plan
- Refreshments

6 PM – Presentation
- Welcome and Introduction – Julie Slavet, TTF Watershed Partnership
- Remarks – Migdalia Rosado Lopez, TCP Keepers
- Remarks – Pete Carter, TCP Master Plan Advisory Committee
- Master Plan Presentation – Natural Lands & Toole Recreation Planning
- Q&A Session
Introductions

Julie Slavet, Executive Director
TTF

Ann Toole, CPRP
Toole Recreation

Ann Hutchinson, FAICP
Nick Upmeyer, RLA
Natural Lands
DCNR Master Plan Grant

William Penn Foundation Funding

Scattergood Foundation Funding
“Nature is a grounding, guiding force in everything that I do. Scientifically, we look to nature for lessons, for innovation. The scientist in me is so fascinated with how modern advances generally come from nature. Nature is the ultimate teacher.”

Dr. Rhoda Moise
Sociologist, Opera Artist, Educator, and Friend of Tacony Creek Park

Learn more about Dr. Moise in her own words.
Pilot Projects

People of the Park - Sign
Pilot Projects

Tacony Creek Park Explorer Kits
Public Outreach Findings

Uses: Connect with Nature, Stress Relief, Fitness

Barriers to Use: Lack of Safety & Maintenance

Desired Improvements: Restrooms & Trails

Programs: Nature, Clean-ups, Plantings, Festivals

Spending: SAFETY
Opportunities

• Improved Maintenance
• Increased Presence in the Park via Programming
• Partnerships
• Rangers as Ambassadors
TACONY CREEK PARK
MASTER PLAN - SECTOR MAP

ALL SECTORS
- 304 acres
- 3.2 miles of trails

SECTOR A
- 56 Acres
- Serving Lawncrest, Olney and Oak Lane

SECTOR B
- 60 Acres
- Serving Lawncrest and Olney

SECTOR C
- 56 Acres
- Serving Feltonville, Juniata Park, and Northwood

SECTOR D
- 125 Acres
- Serving Juniata Park, Northwood, and Frankford

Council District 7
Councilwoman Lozada

Council District 9
Councilman Phillips
thank you.